What is a tariff in Laos?

Tariffs are taxes imposed on imported goods and services. Currently, the tariff rate for 40% applies to imports from Laos. This represents additional costs that importers pay when bringing goods into the United States from Laos. Furthermore, this rate can change based on trade agreements, economic conditions, and government policies.

How do tariff rates affect trade in Laos?

The specific tariff rates can be directly influenced by international trade agreements, such as Free Trade Agreements (FTAs), which Laos has established with several countries. These agreements can reduce or eliminate tariffs on certain goods, making trade more accessible and cost-effective.

What if importing goods from Laos is subject to 40% tariff?

When importing goods from Laos subject to the 40% tariff rate, businesses must ensure proper compliance with customs regulations.

What is Lao PDR Tariff Nomenclature?

Lao PDR tariff nomenclature is based on ASEAN Harmonized Tariff Nomenclature (AHTN 2012) and observes standard ASEAN import tariff rates varying from zero to 40 percent, excluding non-ASEAN countries. These published rates are levied by the Customs Department. Excise tax rates range from 5-90 percent on many goods.
